

I AM GANDHI

Bapu Ghat, Langar Houz, Hyderabad

Mahatma Gandhi Digital Museum

BY

BIRAD RAJARAM YAJNIK

We invite you to be a part of the program - "I AM GANDHI". A program that is designed to enlighten the young generation about Bapu and connect them with his teachings.

How do we do this?

- By taking the students through an interactive experience at BapuGhat, Langar Houz Hyderabad. A place where Gandhi's ashes were immersed on 12th February 1948
- Getting face to face with the world's longest wall on Gandhi showcasing some of the rarest moments of Gandhi's life which the world has never seen
- Exposing everyone to A special show on Mahatma Gandhi in the 21st century and how he is invoked by the most powerful even today
- Presenting the state of the art digital zone on Gandhi where one can view the transformation of Mohandas to the Mahatma in pictures, read letters handwritten by him on an I Pad, learn interesting facts about Gandhi, take an interactive media quiz and even hear the voice of the great one via touch interfaces
- Sensitizing students to the Mahatma's concept of healthy living by exploring a vegetarian lunch to provide a delicious satwik food experience
- Viewing of the Ahimsa Harley and the rare original 16mm projector print of the 1950's film by 20th Century Fox commentary by Walter Cronkite - "The Triumph and Tragedy of Gandhi"
- Concluding the trip with the perfect souvenir- an exclusive special student edition book - "Peace, Truth and Ahimsa", a photo-biography of Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi. A special Edition of this book was released at the UN to mark the International Day of Non-violence

A 360 degree Gandhi experience

Includes museum charges, learning, a student edition book, beverage and lunch

For more information, please contact: mkg@vqindia.com